  - (b) uses any substance as an ingredient in the preparation of food,
  - (c) abstracts any constituent from food, or
  - (d) subjects food to any other process or treatment, so as (in any such case) to render the food injurious to health, with intent that the food shall be sold for human consumption in that state.
- (2) A person is guilty of an offence who—
  - (a) sells for human consumption,
  - (b) offers, exposes or advertises for sale for human consumption, or has in his possession for the purpose of such sale,

- (4) In determining for the purposes of this Act whether an article of food is injurious to health, regard shall be had not only to the probable effect of that article on the health of a person consuming it, but also to the probable cumulative effect of articles of substantially the same composition on the health of a person consuming such articles in ordinary quantities.

of the food demanded by the purchaser, he is guilty of an offence, subject to section 3.

(2) In subsection (1) the reference to sale shall be construed as a reference to sale for human consumption; and in proceedings under that subsection it is not a defence that the purchaser was not prejudiced because he bought for analysis or examination.

3 Defences in proceedings under s. 2.

- (1) In proceedings under section 2 for an offence consisting of the sale of food—
- (a) to which any substance has been added, or
  - (b) in the preparation of which any substance has been used as an ingredient, or

  - (d) which has been subjected to any other process or treatment,

- (i) the operation in question was not carried out fraudulently, and
  - (ii) the article was sold with a notice attached to it of adequate size, distinctly and legibly printed and conspicuously visible, stating explicitly the nature of the operation, or was sold in a wrapper or container displaying such a notice.

- (a) for requiring, prohibiting or regulating the addition of any specified substance or any substance of any specified class, to food intended for sale for human consumption or any class of such food, or the use of any such substance as an ingredient in the preparation of such food, and generally for regulating the composition of such food;
  - (b) for requiring, prohibiting or regulating the use of any process or treatment in the preparation of any food intended for sale for human consumption, or any class of such food;

Those regulations may be—

- (a) in relation to such cases as may be specified, and
